Portrait of the Month – August 2014

- Aug 3 – Hymn sing – Erin played piano, hymns and scriptural songs old and new.

- Aug 10 – second service 'cafeteria style'. Gail Bartlett interviewed about her life and faith and her volunteer ministry: Live and Learn, an educational program for developmentally disabled adults on Wednesday evenings at Middlesex Community College.

- Climate Summer Team East returned for a few days to organize a meeting to help activists protest natural gas pipeline ending at Dracut.

- The Community garden is flourishing! Sunflowers and sweetcorn

- Rev. Ruth on vacation, Aug 11-25. Rev. Duke Gray pulpit supply preacher.

- Kitchen work nearly complete!

- Cathy Gunnulfsen and Jamie Butterweck organized Pampered Chef fundraiser for Kay's Place Meal Program.

- Bob Sweet completed beautiful green "Growing Time" quilted hanging for the chancel.

- Pastor and Church survey taking place throughout this month.

- Aug 31 – John Richards spoke about cities in the Holy Land during worship, illustrated with images from his and Rev. Ruth's trip last year.